

CHESTERMERE

From the Office of the Mayor

Proclamation Black History Month February 2021

During Black History Month, Canadians celebrate the many achievements and contributions of Black Canadians who, throughout history, have done so much to make Canada the culturally diverse, compassionate and prosperous nation it is today, and

WHEREAS: Black History month was first recognized in Ontario in 1995 and celebrated nationally in 1996, following a notion passed by the honorable Jean Augustine, the first Black Canadian woman elected to Parliament, and

WHEREAS: Under the theme "Recognition, Justice and Development" the period between 2015-2024 has been acknowledged by the United Nations as the International Decade for people of African descent and

WHEREAS: the City of Chestermere continues to work toward becoming an inclusive community in which all citizens past, present, and future are respected and recognized for their contributions and potential contributions to our community, and

WHEREAS: the City of Chestermere is committed to the fight against racism and discrimination of individuals of colour, and will continue to elevate voices and promote unity

NOW THEREFORE, I, Marshall Chalmers, Mayor of the City of Chestermere, do hereby proclaim the month of February 2021 as Black History Month in Chestermere.

Dated this 1 day of February, 2021

Mayor Marshall Chalmers
